To play Castle Defenders Saga, select one of three random bonuses at the start of each combat round for a minor boost. Choose your soldiers wisely, including archers, fighters, and cavalry, and use your sorcerers to cast devastating spells. Manage your mana carefully, as talent usage consumes a significant amount, leaving you vulnerable until it's replenished. Summon knights to defend the castle gates, and level up your units for improved combat effectiveness. With skill points, upgrade utility abilities or exchange them for gold coins. In Castle Defender Saga, you'll experience legendary events that will go down in history as truly epic! You can boost your castle's defenses by watching ads. As you play each round, you'll earn gold coins that can be used to buy more rounds or upgrade your units. This includes mages, knights, Bomberman, and summoners. You can improve every aspect of your defense strategy, such as increasing the number of archers in your fortress or boosting its overall health. You can also level up each unit individually by upgrading them ten times and then investing mana to promote them, giving them a significant strength boost. The game features tower defense action, various defensive units, and endless fun with upgrades and a detailed research tree. To play Castle Defenders Saga, start by pressing the battle button to fight wave after wave of foes. Use the lightning mage to cast spells, call combat units by tapping on the swordsman's head, access the talent upgrade menu using the skill button, and tap the lightning mage to bring up the unit selection menu. Upgrade your castle and town archers to increase their health and damage output.
